

NEW YORK (Dow Jones)--CityCenter Holdings, owner of the joint-venture Las Vegas casino complex between MGM Resorts International (MGM) and a subsidiary of Dubai World, sold $1.5 billion of senior secured bonds on Thursday, including $600 million of risky debt that can pay interest in the form of more debt.

Underwriters on Thursday afternoon had altered the structure of the deal, increasing a five-year first-lien bond offering to $900 million from $500 million and decreasing a first-lien bank term loan by an equivalent amount to $500 million, according to a person familiar with the deal, due to heavy investor demand for ...
