CINCINNATI, OH (FOX19) - An outreach program was held Thursday night to help minority contractors receive information on how to participate in the Horseshoe Casino project.

The Economic Inclusion Outreach Session was held at the Cincinnati-Hamilton County Community Action Agency Thursday night. It was held by the Horseshoe Casino Cincinnati, Messer/Pendleton, and the African American Chamber.

The purpose of the session was to help minority contractors along with local community organizations interested in bidding or receiving information about the Horseshoe Casino get that information.

The session as part of an on-going effort to obtain maximum community involvement.

The Casino is a $400 Million project that is set to bring 1700 jobs to the area.
