

Published: Friday, February 25, 2011, 7:06 AM Updated: Friday, February 25, 2011, 7:13 AM

ATLANTIC CITY — Showboat Casino Hotel is the first in Atlantic City to open its doors to dogs.

Nine rooms are set aside under the Pet Stay program, which Showboat's parent company has operated at eight Las Vegas casino hotels.

Guests pay an extra $40 a night to bring their dogs, which are allowed in the hotel and lobby. Canines are prohibited from the casino floor, restaurants, bars, spas and shops.

The dogs receive treats, food, water bowls, a sleeping mat and a special "relief area" by the valet parking section.

Phyllis Pette of Manhattan checked in Thursday with her Maltese. She told The Press of Atlantic City she never thought the day would come.

Previous coverage:

- Showboat to become Atlantic City's first dog-friendly casino

Showboat in Atlantic City welcomes dogs to hotel - The Star-Ledger - NJ.com

Written by Administrator

Friday, 25 February 2011 06:15 -

Source: http://news.google.com/news/url?sa=t&fd=R&usg=AFQjCNFhIGTlxXoT-DgY7AHVRc6F27FNoA&url=http://www.nj.com/news/index.ssf/2011/02/showboat_in_atlantic_city_to_w.html