EMERYVILLE, Calif.—Federal officials say two San Francisco Bay area gambling businesses have been raided as part of a criminal investigation. Federal agents issued warrants throughout the area on Wednesday. Among the locations that were raided were the Oaks Card Club in Emeryville and Artichoke Joe's Casino in San Bruno. FBI officials declined to release additional details about the investigation, saying the indictment and search warrants are sealed.

FBI spokeswoman Alicia Sensibaugh says the investigation is being conducted by the U.S. Attorney's Office, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Internal Revenue Service and the California Department of Justice's Bureau of Gambling Control.
