Las Vegas, NV (KTNV) – One man is behind bars after police say he shot and killed a man in a casino bathroom.

The North Las Vegas Police Department was dispatched to the Opera House Casino in the 2500 block of North Las Vegas Boulevard just before 11:30 Friday night after casino security detained a suspect thought to have shot a man in the bathroom.

The

investigation indicates that 21 year old Henderson resident Stefon Clark was robbing people in the casino bathroom.

During one of the robberies the victim was shot several times. The victim's identity has not yet been released.

Clark was booked into the North Las Vegas Detention Center on charges of murder with a deadly weapon and robbery with a deadly weapon.

Anyone with information is urged to call the North Las Vegas Police Department at (702) 633-9111 or, to remain anonymous, call Crime Stoppers at (702) 385-5555. Tips leading to an arrest or an indictment called into Crime Stoppers may result in a cash reward.

This is the 12th murder in North Las Vegas this year.
