

BENSALEM, PA. — Police say they have arrested a man for leaving his children unattended while visiting a Philadelphia-area casino in the latest in a string of similar incidents.

Authorities last week charged 38-year-old Tan Truong, of Philadelphia, with leaving his two daughters in a minivan while he celebrated his birthday last month at the Parx casino in Bensalem.

Investigators say the girls, ages 8 and 6, were left in the vehicle into the early morning hours. They were unharmed.

Truong's arrest is the sixth this year for a parent or caretaker who allegedly left a child unattended in the parking lot.

Truong is free on bail after being arraigned on child endangerment and public drunkenness charges. A phone listing for him could not immediately be located.

Powered by WizardRSS | Full Text RSS Feeds

Source: <http://news.google.com/news/url?sa=t&fd=R&usg=AFQjCNGKd7WCqQ6zH>

Pa. man allegedly left kids, 8 and 6, to gamble - Cherry Hill Courier Post

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 02 November 2010 08:17 -

OeiOnLUcl8iIRZoGQ&url=http://www.courierpostonline.com/article/20101102/NEWS09/101102039/Pa.-man-allegedly-left-kids-8-and-6-to-gamble