Kyle Busch blew past Todd Bodine on a restart on Lap 127 and held off Johnny Sauter over the final 20 laps to win Friday night's WinStar World Casino 350K at Texas Motor Speedway.

Busch is on the brink of capturing this year's owner's championship in the series, as his No.18 team holds a 72-point lead over Bodine's No.30 team with just two races to go.

Matt Crafton finished third, followed by Bodine and Elliott Sadler.

It is the seventh win for Busch at Texas Motor Speedway, making him the winningest driver at the track wrapping up its 14th season. He has won twice in trucks along with wins in the last five Nationwide races there, a streak he will try to extend Saturday.
