

Sports wagering bill advances in the La. legislature; union for casino workers releases guidelines

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 05 May 2020 19:14 -

At this point, the State of Louisiana remains under the Governor's Stay at Home Order through May 15, and it's premature to anticipate what specific steps will occur on May 15, or beyond. When we do take those steps, all of this feedback will be instrumental in helping us identify the right steps to take as we reopen casinos and other places of business."

Read more <https://www.wafb.com/2020/05/05/sports-wagering-bill-advances-la-legislature-union-casino-workers-releases-guidelines/>