

$111K jackpot win at Las Vegas Valley casino

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 05 September 2020 16:49 -

The Labor Day weekend started incredibly strong for one slots player at a Las Vegas Valley casino.

A slots player at Sunset Station turned a 60-cent wager into a progressive Superlock Jackpot win worth $111,748.43.

The winning spin hit around 6:30 p.m. Friday, according to the casino's Twitter account.

Winners across the Las Vegas Valley

At the Golden Nugget, a $25 wager on a video poker machine became a $20,000 haul for one player.

At the Cannery, Francisco connected for a $14,369.10 jackpot on Lightning Link.

At The Orleans, one slots player hit a $12,869 jackpot.

At Binion's a visitor from Indiana won $4,914 on a Triple 7 machine.

Four Queens has had several winners this weekend. For starters, a dealt spades royal flush was worth $8,000 for one lucky player.

In addition, a California visitor on a Buffalo machine hit a bonus jackpot for $6,126.

$111K jackpot win at Las Vegas Valley casino

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 05 September 2020 16:49 -

Pabla from Texas lined up 3 Tabasco logos to collect a $5,000 jackpot.

Also, a local player had no trouble holding the diamond royal flush he drew, winning $4,000.

Contact Tony Garcia at tgarcia@reviewjournal.com or 702-383-0307. Follow @TonyGLVNews on Twitter.

Read more <https://www.reviewjournal.com/business/casinos-gaming/slots-player-hits-for-111k-at-las-vegas-valley-casino-2112273/>