Roulette: Roulette is a casino game named after the French word meaning little wheel which was likely developed from the Italian game Biribi. The best way to win more games on roulette (or to minimize the risk to lose money on the roulette wheel, if you wish) is to focus on the outside bets. Although these roulette bets do not lead to mind-blowing wins, keeping your bets on the odds/even, red/black, and high/low gives you the highest chances to score a win.

Blackjack: Blackjack is the most widely played casino banking game in the world. The game is played with decks of 52 cards and is an American descendant of a global family of banking games known as Twenty-One. This family of card games also includes the British game of Pontoon and the European game, Vingt-et-Un.

Video Poker: Video poker is a casino game based on five-card draw poker. It is played on a computerized console similar in size to a slot machine. Based purely on odds, Double Bonus Poker is the best video poker game to play. Statistically, your odds in this game are so high that you'll get paid to play. Jacks or Better is another great choice because of its popularity and an outstanding balance of payout and house edge.

Baccarat: Baccarat or baccara is another sizzling hot card game played at casinos. It is a comparing card game played between two hands, the "player" and the "banker". Each baccarat coup has three possible outcomes: "player", "banker", and "tie". Chinese Baccarat players love the game due to its fast style, and because it's not too heavily weighted in the casino's favour.

Pai Gow: The name "pai gow" is loosely translated as "make nine" or "card nine". This reflects the fact that, with a few high-scoring exceptions, the maximum score for a hand is nine. The objective of Pai Gow Poker is for each Player to arrange their cards into two hands in such a way that they both rank higher than the Banker's two hands. The five-card hand must rank higher than the Banker's five-card hand, and the two-card hand must rank higher than the Banker's two-card hand.

Sic Bo: Sic Bo is a simple dice game based on chance. All you need to do is place your chips on a bet box on the table. The dice are shaken and if the outcome of the roll matches your bet, you win. Sic Bo features a variety of possible bets, each with its own payout odds. It is an exciting live game played with three regular dice with a face value of 1 to 6.

Keno: Keno is a lottery-style game with 80 balls numbered 1 through 80. Players choose up to 20 numbers and place a wager on which ones will be drawn at random on the next game. Keno payouts are based upon how many numbers the player chose are called; the number of matches out of those chosen, and the wager.

Slots: A slot machine is a gambling game with spinning reels. Those reels have symbols on them, which land randomly after you place a bet and spin the reels. Modern slot machines use a computer program called a random number generator to determine which symbols land where.
