CHICAGO, Oct. 13, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Rush Street Interactive, Inc. (NYSE: RSI) ("RSI"), which operates the BetRivers and PlaySugarHouse online casino and sportsbook brands, today announced that it has been named to the shortlist of nominees across a broad spectrum of categories for the SBC Awards North America 2021. RSI is included in three 'best of' categories including 'Casino Operator of the Year', 'Social Operator of the Year' and 'Leader of the Year.'

RSI is honored by this recognition by SBC as these awards are acknowledging and rewarding the expertise and innovation of North America's leading operators, in this fast growing, high-tech industry, who have exhibited excellence in the past year.

"We feel honored to be shortlisted by the well-respected SBC Gaming media group, especially since their hand-selected judges, who represent the cream of the crop in the industry, recognized the quality of our business in multiple categories," said Richard Schwartz, CEO of RSI. "We are extremely proud of the nomination for our social casino, which highlights how RSI takes pride in developing and offering our players a high-quality experience."

RSI develops its own social casino software in-house and is the only social gaming operator to offer slots, live dealer table games and even a social sportsbook. It provides players with hundreds of titles from twenty game studios, including top games from many land based casino floors.

"I'm appreciative to be shortlisted in the "Leader of the Year" category but these recognitions really salute the talents of our entire interactive team. It is their dedication and passion to continually advance the quality of our product, operations and overall customer experience that drives our innovation," added Schwartz.
