LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Churchill Downs Inc. has completed its purchase of a Mississippi casino and hotel for about $138 million.

The company, which owns Churchill Downs in Louisville and three other racetracks, will have a public ceremony Friday to mark the transfer of ownership of Harlow's Casino Resort & Hotel in Greenville, Miss., which is across the Mississippi River from Arkansas.

Harlow's sits on about 69 acres of leased land and includes a 33,000-square-foot casino with 841 slot machines, 23 table games and a poker room as well as a 105-room attached hotel. The complex also has a 2,600-seat entertainment center and three separate dining areas.

Churchill Downs said Harlow's has approximately 480 employees.

The company also owns Arlington Park in Illinois, Calder Casino & Race Course in Florida and Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots in Louisiana.
