

January snow blamed for dip in casino revenue; Hard Rock reports $10M table games revenue

Written by Administrator

Monday, 14 February 2022 08:37 -

“We did have significant snow in January, specifically on two of the five weekends, starting on New Year’s Day. That definitely made it a little tougher in January,” Matt Schuffert, president, Hard Rock Casino Northern Indiana, said. “Overall, though, I am very pleased with our results in January, topping $30 million, despite some challenging winter weather.”

Read more <https://www.chicagotribune.com/suburbs/post-tribune/ct-ptb-casino-january-figures-st-0215-20220214-djwhqpd6s5c5fckhwbkagnst54-story.html>