An Iowa man is facing multiple charges after authorities said he ran a woman's car off the road and robbed her at gunpoint of thousands of dollars she had won at the Prairie Meadows casino.

According to a criminal complaint, Timothy Spencer of Berwick saw the woman win two jackpots totaling about $18,000 at the Altoona casino, racetrack and hotel in the early hours of July 19.

As the woman left the casino around 3 a.m., security cameras recorded Spencer following her out, according to court documents. She was driving home when two vehicles forced her off the road in the 3400 block of Easton Boulevard in Des Moines around 3:15 a.m.

The court documents allege Spencer struck the driver side window of the woman's car, shattering it, before opening the door and stealing her purse, which held her winnings, at gunpoint.
